

Direct Object Pronouns

The direct object is who/what is receiving the action in a sentence.

I kick the ball. We write letters. She hit me.

me - _____	nos - _____ te - _____
lo - _____, _____, _____	los - _____, _____
la - _____, _____, _____	las - _____, _____

Direct Object Pronouns can be placed -

1. _____ a conjugated verb. (1 verb)
 2. _____ a negative command.
 3. _____ to an infinitive. (2 verbs)
 4. _____ to a positive command. accent (cover it/say it/second to last)
 5. _____ to a present participle. accent (-ándo, -iéndo, -yéndo)
- ~~~~~

Práctica

I. Direct Object Pronouns: Write the D.O.P. to replace the underlined word.

1. Don't hit us! _____
2. I will call you (fam.) tomorrow. _____
3. The students brought them (book bags) to class. _____
4. She sees him every day. _____
5. We broke it (table). _____
6. Are you reading them (books) for English class? _____

II. Direct Object Pronouns: Place the pronoun given into the sentence.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 7. Felipe invita a la fiesta .(me) | 10. ¡ Compra ! (las) |
| 8. Yo no puedo esperar .(te) | 11. Ellos están mirando .(nos) |
| 9. Mi tío paga mucho .(los) | 12. ¡ No abras ! (lo) |